It Ain’t Gonna Rain No More

C C G7 C

CHORUS:  starts the song and usually follows every two verses
Verses are numbered to help keep track of which ones are being used.  They are in no particular order, and just a few of the dozens (hundreds) on the net.
Verses are played just like the chorus.

C G7
It ain’t gonna rain no more, no more.  It ain’t gonna rain no more.
C
How in the heck can I wash my neck, if it ain’t gonna rain no more?

1) Mary had a little lamb, so goes the tale of yore.
She loved that little lamb so much, she passed her plate for more.

2) A bullfrog sat on a lily pad, looking up in the sky.
He fell right off that lily pad, and got water in his eye.

3) The chamber maid came to my bed, said “Get up you lazy sinner,
We need the sheets for table cloths, and it’s almost time for dinner”

4) Jack and Jill went up the hill, to try out Jack’s new flivver
The car broke down a mile from town, and dumped them in the river

5) Oh, a peanut sat on a railroad track, it's heart was all a-flutter.
Along came the 5:05 ---- Toot - Toot!, peanut butter.

6) A cow walked on the railroad track, the train was coming fast.
The train got off the railroad track to let the cow go past!

(The following two verses are usually sung together)

7) I woke up in the morning, I glanced upon the wall.
The roaches and the bedbugs were having a game of ball.

8) The score was six to nothing, the roaches were ahead.
A bedbug hit a home run and knocked me out of bed!

9) A doctor fell into a well and broke his collar bone.
We think that he should tend the sick and leave the well alone.
10) A farmer slipped on the old barn roof when rotten boards gave way, And as as he fell, he shrugged and said, "It's time to hit the hay."

11) Mary had a little lamb, her father shot it dead, She still takes the lamb to school, between two bits of bread.

12) Mary had a little lamb, you've heard that tale before, But have you heard she passed her plate, and politely asked for more.

13) Mary had a little lamb, she also had a bear I've often seen her little lamb, but I've never seen her bear.

14) Mary had a little lamb, the doctor was surprised But when Old McDonald had a farm, he couldn't believe his eyes

15) They sat upon the grassy bank, and she was all a-quiver... He undid her suspender belt, and her leg fell into the river!

16) Mary is a proper girl, she goes to church on Sundays. She prays that she will have the strength, to chase the boys on Mondays.

17) Oh! The night was dark and dreary, the air was full of sleet, The old man stood out in the storm, his shoes were full of feet.

18) An old man lay down by a sewer, and by a sewer he died. Now, at the coroner's request, they called it sewer-side.

19) Mary lives up in the hills, she's awfully shy and meek, She undresses in the dark, because the mountains peak.

20) Mary had a steamboat, the steamboat had a bell. Mary went to heaven, the steamboat went "Toot, toot."

21) Said baby tern to mother tern, "Can I have a brother." "Yes" said mom to baby tern, "One good tern deserves another."

22) Oh for a home where the buffalo roam, where the deer and the antelope play. Where seldom is heard a discouraging word, for what can an antelope say?

There are dozens of variations of this song, which probably dates to the 1800's. Wendell Hall recorded a version in 1923 which became a million seller in the U.K.
